

Building A Stronger Neighborhood

Jacinto "Tony" Siquig Northside Community Center (JTSNCC) Request for Proposals Community Meeting

The City of San José, Department of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services will be hosting a meeting to solicit feedback on the proposal submitted by the Asian American Recovery Services (AARS) to operate the JTSNCC.

The meeting will consist of a presentation by AARS regarding their collaborative proposal, followed by questions and/or comments by the community. The resulting information from these community meetings will be provided to City Council for their consideration in making a decision regarding the selection of an operator for the Jacinto "Tony" Siquig Northside Community Center.

All meetings will take place at the Jacinto "Tony" Siquig Northside Community Center, 488 North Sixth Street, San José, CA 95112.

A copy of the Request for Proposal, the AARS proposal and related documents can be viewed at the PRNS website:
